

Mountain Food Products 2019 Multi-Farm CSA

Mountain Food Products is accepting members for our 2019 Multi-Farm CSA! Being a multi-farm CSA, we source produce from an array of farms in Asheville and the surrounding areas to offer you a wide variety of fresh, local produce. As a member, you will receive a box of produce each week throughout the growing season, delivered to a convenient location near you.

How Does It Work?

CSA stands for Community Supported Agriculture, and is an investment at the beginning of the season that pays off every week throughout the growing season. There are two share sizes to accommodate different households: our small share contains 5-6 items and feeds 1-2 people, while our large share includes 9-10 items and feeds to 2-4 people. You can expect items such as strawberries and radishes in the spring, tomatoes and peppers during the summer, and squash and apples during the fall. Expect a great variety and some fun surprises too!

CSA boxes are delivered every Thursday, starting May 16th and run through November 7th. That's 26 weeks of fresh, local produce! A list of farm names will accompany each box and you will also receive a weekly e-mail with recipes to provide some inspiration!
